JEWELLERY MAKING PARTIES

Perfect Party Planner

1. Choose A Date

Friday evenings after school suit older girls which you might want to turn into a sleepover. Saturday and Sunday's suit most families and will get the best number of attendees.

2. Timing

You want a time that won't cut into your guests' parents' weekend sleep-in so a 11 am start is perfect for a lunch party or 2pm for afternoon tea. This also allows the guests' parents to have some time out and you can enjoy a glass of bubbly while the kids celebrate. Two hours is the perfect timing to get creative and have food and cake.

3. Friends

You want to make sure your child's partner in crime aka best friend is available to come on the date you have chosen - it just won't be the same without them.

4. Involve Your Child

I know it's easy to take control and just get things done, but it's also good to get your child involved to see what activities they want, favourite food, and of course birthday cake.

5. Book Entertainment

Once you have everything else in place get in early to book your party 4-6 weeks in advance to secure your place so you can relax knowing the kids are taken care of.

6. Send Out Invitations

Pretty Little things supplies party invitations or you might like to have a "crafternoon" with your daughter and design your own.

7. Plan Menu

This is where I struggle and there is always too much food - I think the key is 3 savoury and 3 sweets options. Bake as much as you can the day before the party so on the day all you have to do is re-heat and serve.

8. Birthday Cake

Hopefully your child has picked her cake - It could be from the Women's weekly birthday cake book or personally since discovering my baking skills are nonexistent. I found my last one through Instagram from a local mumpreneur. Pick up the cake the day before so it's done and dusted.

9. Party Styling

There is no need to go overboard as having a jewellery party looks incredibly enticing with a table full of sparkling jewels. All you need is a tablecloth, and a few balloons or my new fave tissue paper pom poms.

10. Sit-Back & Relax

The day of the party has arrived, decorate the party area, put the food in the oven to warm, and meet and greet your guests. Pretty Little things arrives 15 minutes before the party to set up and take care of the rest for you!
